Description

Switching from “Select from garage or viewed” does not save the selected spare part category and returns the user back to the catalog.

Preconditions

- 1. The user has opened the main page.
- 2. The user has access to the search field.
- 3. The user has already performed a search and has a car in the “Select from garage or viewed” tab.

Steps to Reproduce

- 1. Open the website <https://avtopro.ua/>
- 2. Select a spare part from the product catalog next to the search bar on the left.
- 3. Check that the name of the selected spare part is displayed where the “Product Catalog” was.
- 4. Click on the “Select from garage or viewed” tab to select the car brand.
- 5. Select a car from the list.
- 6. Fill in the engine details or click skip step.
- 7. The user is returned to the product catalog.

Actual Result

After selecting a car from the “Select from garage or viewed” tab, the site returns the user back to the catalog to reselect the spare part. The previously selected category is not saved.

Expected Result

After selecting a car from “Select from garage or viewed,” the user should receive search results specifically for the previously selected spare part category and selected car.

Environment

Screenshots

The first screenshot shows the avtopro.ua website. The navigation menu at the top includes 'Каталог товарів' (Catalog of goods), which is highlighted with a red box. A red circle highlights the 'Від 2%' (From 2%) discount banner. A red number '7' is placed next to the 'Каталог товарів' link.

The second screenshot shows the 'Вкажіть автомобіль' (Select car) section. A red box highlights a list of cars, including BMW X3, Volvo XC90, BMW X6, Volkswagen ID7, BMW 3, Ford FUSION, Volvo C40, and Honda E. A red number '5' is placed next to the list.
